Billy Is Coming Home

Four years and seven months ago Billy McKinstry of Pahokee "joined up." He became a member of Uncle Sam's army and for a long time was stationed in Honolulu. During all that time Sgt. McKinstry hasn't been back home. He has been mighty busy attending to some of Uncle Sam's business in various spots in the Pa-his folks. In fact his mother, Mrs. Sam McKinstry Sr. had a ...ire on Tuesday of this week from him in California and it said he would be here this week. She and all other members of the family are anxiously waiting to see him. All other members except his Dad who is in King's Ferry, N. Y., on a vegetable deal. We'd guess that some sort of a plan will be worked out before Billy's return, whereby Sam, Ar. will again see the youngster who went off to the wars nearly five years ago.

TAMPA, Jan. 25. (AP)—

TAMPA, June 7. — (EWS) — Fishing Tampa recently, George Brautigam, director of the Florida division of the National Youth Fund, advised newsmen that work would begin shortly in organizing the State for the 1945 effort.

"The end of the war in Europe," Brautigam said, "has in no way lessened the need for continuing the work of those agencies and services supported by the Fund." He pointed out that, in the months to come, the need for these services will be amplified as millions of service men and women

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

You can gird yourselves for some real tummy wrenching laughs for the Sunday Monday show at your Price Theatre this coming Sunday-Monday.

The title of the show is "Dough-boys" the stars, they are all stars and I'll list them as such: Ann Sheridan, Alexis Smith, Jack Carson, Jane Wyman, Irene Manning, Charles Ruggles.

Picture is based on the Broadway hit of the same title. This witty comedy depicts life in Washington today with everyone seeking a place to live. Miss Sheridan comes to the nation's capital to be with her sweetheart, in the service, before he leaves. They find their suite also occupied by other girls who have known. Individual performances were all perfect. Some outstanding ones were Jack Carson, the grown-to-be who nearly wasn't. Jane Wyman, a little on the dumb side, Eve Arden as the Russian Serpent with the hair trigger finger, carrying a long range rifle around with a telescope on it, for long range sniping. Ann Sheridan, who finds her husband is not as yet ready for the marriage hall because he is not completely housed from the former Missus. Alexis Smith, whose flyer sweetheart is a little impatient. Charles Ruggles, whose wolfish tendencies pop up and all the rest who make this one of the most delightful comedies that one ever had the pleasure of sitting through. You'll Love Every Inch of It!

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

TOM: "It's mighty nice to receive a compliment like you've just given us, Judge. We do take our responsibilities very seriously and try to do the right thing with everybody. In spite of it, we get criticized now and then."

OLD JUDGE: "I know... you've got to like the bitter with the sweet in times like these. Speaking of criticism, did I mean really unfair criticism, reminds me of the spirit beverage business."

FRANK: "How is that, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Simply this... can you think of any other business in which the seller is responsible for what the buyer does with his merchandise? If a person gets too much cake and gets indigestion, the baker isn't blamed. Nor is the coffee merchant criticized if someone drinks too much coffee and can't sleep. But the seller of spirit beverages gets blamed plenty if one of his customers overdresses. Doesn't seem quite fair, does it, Tom?"

TOM: "Frankly, it doesn't, Judge. We've never looked at it that way before."
